

[Temporary document]

Impact Your Community Put Your Skills to Work

Volunteers are a key part of Stirling Credit Union: without volunteers we would not exist. We depend on our volunteers to serve our members and grow presence in the community.

Director, Committee and Office Volunteers Vacancies

Do you have relevant skills and would like to engage in your community? Would you want to be part of bringing real and positive change to the financial circumstances of young people and families in Stirling? Would you like to work with like-minded people, expand your own skills, participate in training, speak to business and educational contacts, introduce new members? If this could be you, please contact us to discuss how you could help.

We are looking for people with a range of skills and experience who can help Stirling Credit Union develop new services and help the Board implement our growth strategy.

If you have experience in the areas of finance, business management, marketing/public relations, education, member services, or administration and office procedures, we can find a role that matches your interest and time availability

Director or Committee Member

We look for people with relevant experience and a passion to make a difference in their community and who are

- Able to work and take decisions as part of a team
- Good at expressing ideas and reports
- Dependable and deliver on commitments
- Open minded, and ?can-do? attitude
- Able to commit one evening per month plus off-line work

Office Volunteers

If you have half a day free each week (or can commit more time) this is the role for you. Do you have any of the following skills?

- Office administration
- Secretarial
- Accounting
- Member services

You will work alongside an enthusiastic and motivated team and will be invited to join in our training and social events.

Apply

If you think you have what it takes then we would love to hear from you.

Email us (chair@stirlingcreditunion.co.uk) and ask for a telephone chat or download our Volunteer Application Form and send it to us.